

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is an effort to promulgate a
specific point of view in the guise of journalism without
the benefit of
counterpoint - a
founding principal
of the equal time
statute that used to be embraced by the
FCC.

If we can take CBS
to task for their lack of scruples in
airing
unsubstantiated
documents regarding the President's National Guard
service, then Sinclair stands
ready to be
admonished for their prejudicial actions
to promote a conservative agenda.

They should be characterized as a 527 group much like
the Swift Boat Vets.

I object strongly
to this heavy handed
manner at filtering
the news to sell a point of view.

Action should be taken to either
revoke or refuse to renew the license
that Sinclair
currently uses in its bid to serve the public interest.
